

Peace hath her victories no less renowned than war.

—MILTON

THE STARS AND STRIPES FOR PEACE.

A PATRIOTIC SONG AND CHORUS

Dedicated to UNIVERSAL PEACE

By
THEO. G. SELLECK

Price, 15 Cents

COPYRIGHT 1914
By T. G. SELLECK

PUBLISHED BY THE SILLAWAY-JOHNSON PUBLISHING COMPANY
1630 Walnut Street
MILWAUKEE, WIS.

G. Reuther & Son Co. Music Printers, Milwaukee

The Stars and Stripes--For Peace

Presto

THEO. G. SELLECK

BUGLE CALL
"Cease Firing!"

Allegro

1. While oth - er na - tions clash in war, And raise their war - flags high; And
 2. War's des - o - la - tions sweep the lands Of sis - ter na - tions near, And
 3. We will not shrink should Right de - mand Our ban - ner lead the way, And Thro'
 4. When U - ni - ver - sal Peace shall come And wars shall have an end; When

Allegro marcato

men rush forth to bat - tle to con - quer or to die; Still per - se - cu - tions threat - ning hand Fills hearts and minds with fear; Then shot and shell on field of strife to fight to win the fray, But
 "Peace on earth Good will to men" shall all the na - tions blend God

Copyright 1914, by THEO. G. SELLECK, Milwaukee, Wis.

float - ing proud - ly in the breeze, On land and on the seas, Un-brave - ly goes the stars and stripes To bid the con - flicts cease, Un-grant that this our - ry boast may be When On land, the con - flicts cease, Un-

ad. lib. stained, and bright with Glo - ry's light, Waves The Stars and Stripes—For Peace; Un-(Verses 3 and 4) Waved

Legato Rit

stained, and bright with Glo - ry's light, Waves the Stars and Stripes—For Peace.
 (Verses 3 and 4) Waved

CHORUS

The Stars and Stripes for Peace The Stars and Stripes for Peace, Unfor Peace

stained and bright with Glo - ry's light, Waves the Stars and Stripes—For Peace!

